New Market Master Training Calls

The USDA requires all new market masters attend, either in person or via phone, a training session to learn about Senior Project FRESH/Market FRESH. Below is a list of the dates of the training calls.

- You only need to participate in one call.
- No registration is needed.
- Calls last approximately 45 minutes.
- Follow along material can be found at: <http://www.michigan.gov/marketfresh> Click on the “Market Master” tab, and find “Conference Call Training Material”.
- Once you have registered with AASA, and have been assigned a 3-digit market master number, you may accept coupons, even if you have not yet participated in the call.
